thelupinearrider asked:
Doctor check on Ananta. If you were shake up by this she must be even worse. Return the care and comfort she showed you when you first saw her in her pony form and go and check on her.
author-of-chaos asked:
So Doc, looks like someone or something is messing with the TARDIS; any ideas on how much influence this being may currently have over the TARDIS? On a side note, how's Ananta faring?
She seems relieved. I think we're safe now.
I'm not even going to ask any more...

ximoch asked:
One would surmise that something really bad is going down in any given Canterlot just now. Is it possible to find out what from a safe distance?
mickey12893 asked:
Doctor, I think the TARDIS was protecting you. If she was acting like that, maybe there's something REALLY wrong in Canterlot right now. Probably EVERY Canterlot. Every time. Every dimension.
Well, then that's just one less place for me to visit.

necronius asked:
If going to canterlot is SUCH a big deal for the tardis, Why not just Walk there?
If she was trying to keep me from going there then why the hell would I go there?!

pop-like asked:
Always remember, don't run away but run TO your target
I don't do that any more and you know it.

fe26eagle asked:
Mayhaps the TARDIS was pulled here? Or somehow summoned against her will? By some magic force wielded by one with knowledge on the workings of TARDISes?
It was something in Canterlot that was pulling her. Right now she's in a safe place, but she needs time to recover after the excursion.

ask-storm-runner asked:

So where are you now?

ask-the-main-dimension asked:

GT: So Doctor, where and when exactly are you?

askquickwing asked:

She landed....but where?

fallendeath14 asked:

so doctor where have you and jack landed torn199799 asked:

where did you guys land anyway. and for that mater what mad the tardis act-up?

POLICE PUBLIC CALL BOX
Oh no...
What's wrong?

This universe is a joke...
What's wrong with it...?

No. Literally. It's a joke. I call it...

So, when and where are you go ng in these "bleed ng d mens ons", and is it safe? We both know it's not a good idea to do it in our universe
Some are safe, some are dangerous. This is a prime example of a 'safe' one. Even if it's annoying.

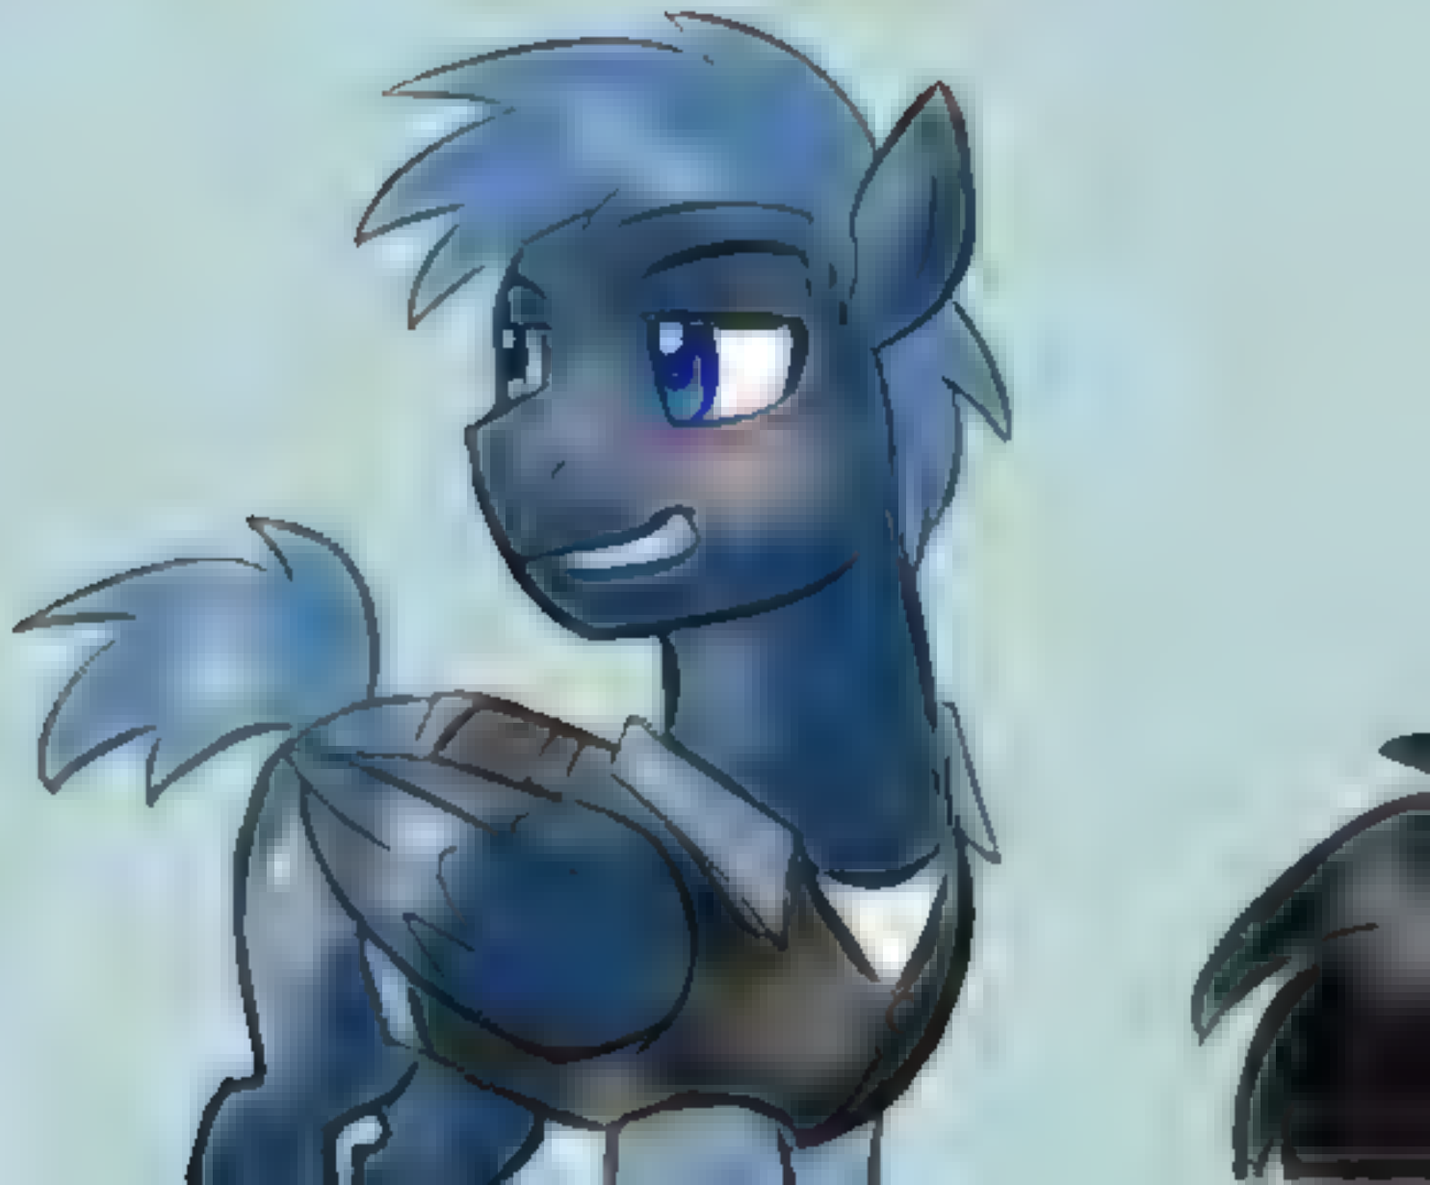
Is there a way to stop the worlds from bleeding?
Probably, but in some cases it's best to leave it alone. This is one of those cases, the bleeding has more or less become an integrated part of their existence.

Maybe you should give Jack a bit more detail on this 'bleeding dimension' thingy
This 'Punverse' is one of many universes I like to dub 'self aware bleeding'.
They don't question multiples of one pony, some residents are aware of the multiverse, and those from other dimensions don't really notice when they've crossed in or out for the most part.

So Jack, excited to finally be traveling outside of the TARDIS? :D Try not to worry about the 'Bleeding' Universes :) relax and enjoy yourself :) Things have been fine for the most part when crossing over Universes :) (Though it doesn't hurt to err on the side of caution :)
Now, I don't mind most of them, but this particular universe gives me a headache. Nearly everywhere you go, it's a walking joke. Seriously, it starts to get in to your head and you'll wind up slipping in to it, messing up words, making a fool of yourself... It's bloody embarrassing.

Don't get distracted jack We all know certain "things" about you All it would take is somepony hot and a "hello"

The first time I came here I just wanted to find a flock of butterflies. You know flying butter. Seemed like something that would be here. Sadly, I made a terrible miscowculation.



Hey Jack have you ever tried this weird blue flower? It's super delicious and is one of the many things on a horse's diet A lot of people don't like it and tell you not to eat it but I think you can prove them wrong eh?
Don't mind if I do...
There I was, all prepeared for a flying snack, but no. Instead of flying butter, it was literally flies that ate butter. Nothing but butter. It was awful!

All I wanted was a butter life and instead I was dairy disappointed. Since then, I simply lactose the tolerance to deal with this universe and it's cruel, grating jokes.

Just be wary of this place
Jack, it gets in your he--

So Doctor how much flirting do you expect from Jack when you show him around?
...Jack?

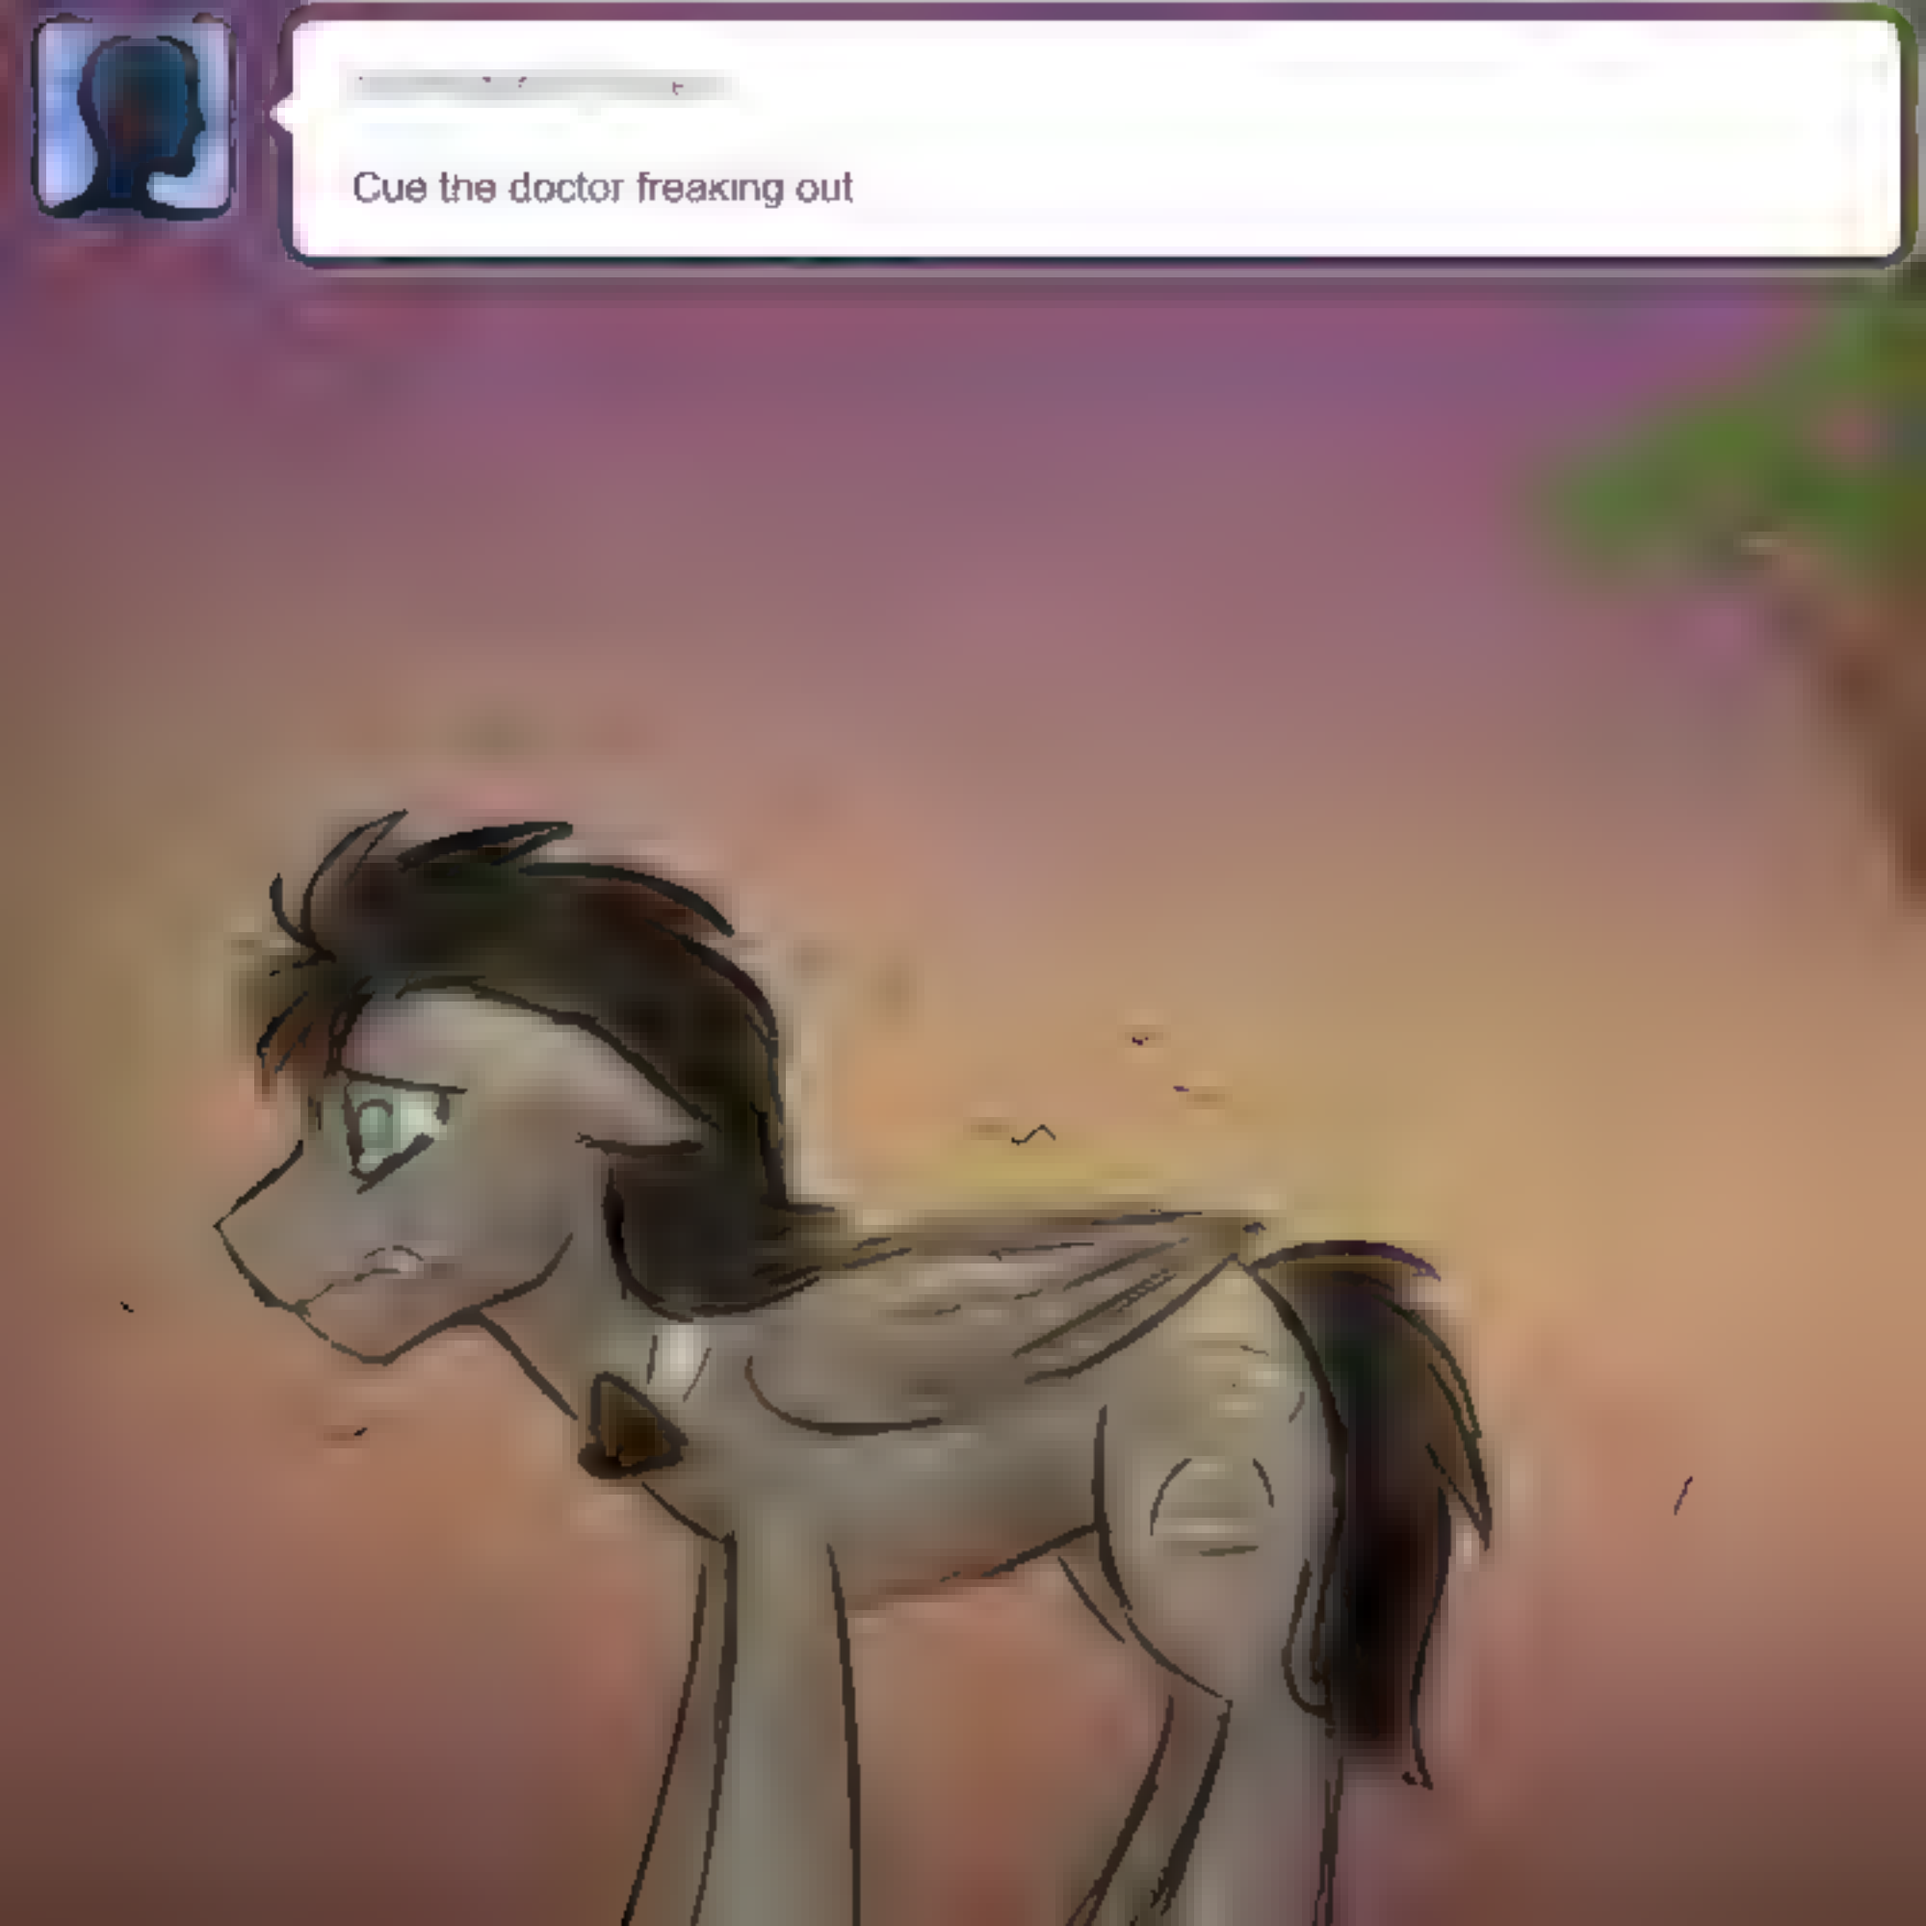
Uh oh Doctor, you probably shouldn't have taken your eyes off of Jackie Boy
Jack!? Jack, where are you?

Oh no, this is what you were afraid of Loosing Jack, your only hope of company
GO FIND HIM NOW

I wonder what kind of trouble Jack is getting himself into this time... I guess you had better go and find him
Looks like Jack has run off doctor. You'd better get 'em before he gets himself in trouble
Please be okay,
please be okay,
please please please...

Maybe you could ask someone if they know where he went?
So you were....
hi'jack'ed?

Doctor try not to panic! He couldn't have gotten far, right?
It's been... 5 hours...



Cue the doctor freaking out

Jack has probably run off to explore this PUNderfu universe Don't be mad at him You've kept him locked up in the TARDIS for so long
Hope you won't get upset with Jack having a little fun He's been by your side all this time and rest assured he's not gonna leave you for good
It's all my fault, I should have kept an eye on him...!

Umm, Doc...

I think I might have shlept with the wrong pony and now I'm shtuck like thish... I kept trying to find you but I couldn't shee without glashes.

Oh,
you have got to be joking.

Dammit Jack whats the FIRST rule of traveling with the Doctor? DONT WANDER OFF!!!
What in your right mind made you think it was a good idea to just run off with some random pony in a joke universe?!

Well that rather figures Leave it to Jack to end up doing the wrong thing with the wrong pony in a punverse
I'm shorry, I'm shorry, I jusht really needed to shatishfy an itch and he was cute, so I jusht...

Ask Jack who he slept with!
Okay, so why did this pony make you look like... That? What kind of pony was it?

I'm going to take a wild guess and say he fell into a field of poison joke. After all what's the exact opposite of a cool and dashingly handsome stallion? Well, you're looking at him
I don't know, he had a blue flower butt mark.

doc, its poison joke, like before he needs to take a bath
A... Poison joke pony. Of course. Of course there would be one of those here.

Doctor, our files state Zecora should be able to assist in fixing Jack to normal. I would suggest going to her, no?
Look on the bright side, at least you know who can fix this Alright, listen carefully, we need to gather ingredients for the cure and bring them to a local medicine expert. I've dealt with this stuff before.

How hard is it to get bloody asparagus?! Every time this happens it's always the dam asparagus!
Well, if I could 'spara-guess, they musht be high in demand.

I mean, you have no idea how long it took Derpy to get some, and I couldn't do it myself because I could barely move thanks to the size of my--

You need to chill out, Doc.

I hate you so much.

Why the hell did you do that?!
What, can't take a JOKE?! Phhht- hahaha*snort*haha!

Of all the things in existence, why must there be a universe dedicated to the lowest form of humor?
I often ask myself the same thing
HAHAWHAW*snort*HA you sound like a squirrel HAW!

Doctor I'm not sure you had to panic that hard Just because a friend goes away for a little bit doesn't mean they're gone forever What's next? Just put Jack in a cage covered in chains?
Try being me for 1,000 years and then tell me how easy it is not to be afraid when a friend goes missing.
AHHHHHHH
WHOOSH

Next Stop Zecora's hut! right?
Hey Doccy I think Jack has been poision joked Maybe its time to visit Zecora again?? ~~Wink wink Nudge nudge

Kphht-Phhht...

SHUT UP!

Ohhh.
I needed that...

How are you holding up, Doct-

DOC?!

M-mmfh-

What's black and white and red all over?
No.
A zebra on top of you.
Shut up.

Zebras, though...? Pretty exotic.
I'm over it, I swear, I just forgot she was still attracted to me...

Yeah, what was that about exactly?
She's a sucker for dirty poetry, alright?!
Can we please change the subject?!

Fine, then. You brought me here to learn more about being a pony, right?
Right.

Meet you at the library!
Hey, wait what—?

Are you sure it's here?
I'm just seeing books on celebrities.
Well anything about stars should be there. It's my special Twilight-brand filing system.

What kind of library is only open by appointment?
What can I say, she works Twilight hours.
Open 6-8
By appointm

So I was trying to explore my flank mark, but I couldn't find any of the astronomy texts.
Well there's one mare here who can find them, but she gives me a headache.

Is it the kind of headache I give you?
No, her jokes make your brain violently purge a few cells trying to forget what it just heard.

Oh I have got to meet this mare!
Don't say I didn't warn you.

She's over there.
I'm not going anywhere near her, so good luck.

Just let Jack do his th ng You know what it s like to go on streak of debauchery, so let him off h s leash a little huh? In the meantime why not see if there are any duplicate "marshmal ows" in town eh? wink wink nudge nudge
What are you gonna do?
I have an appointment.

Excuse me, Miss Pun?
Yes?

Hi there! The Doc said you could help me find a book on astronomy. The librarian has a strange filing system.
Ah, that would be under T for telescope-viewing, but you'd only find a junior astronomer's guidebook there. Follow me.

The treehouse catalogue is just fiction and foal-level reading material.
The real library is in here.

Welcome to my private library,
open to the public.

All these books are yours?
As the royal Toponymist, I've used my expense stipend over the years to build up a solid collection of research material on most topics.

So why not just put a sign out front?
Because the purple paperback pilferer will use her royal position to indefinitely 'borrow' any and all books she can.

If she knew about these, she'd want them all for "her library," and you've seen how often it's open.
When I saw the sign out front, I thought 6 to 8 meant AM to PM.
I was wrong.

When are you going to go see twilight?
I think you're due for a check-up with your Doctor...
I-I'm sure I can make room on my schedule...

Considering your cutie mark is a constellation, I think you'll need more than a simple constellations chart.
Well I'm not quite sure what it means yet, but this will probably help.

So I noticed your cutie mark's a... ...censor bar?
Ah yes, my talent is removing objectionable material from public circulation. Just ignore the crossed-out sections in the books.

That's certainly an... interesting talent.
Hehe!
I'm kidding silly. It's a one-liner.

Hahah!
Good one!
Seems you're just as smart as you are pretty.

Books can be checked out for a month, and to renew just bring it back through the door.
How does bringing it back through the door renew it? Don't I need to sign something?

Magic. If a book is gone more than a month, it starts beeping, and gets louder every day until it's brought back.

So no chance a book gets left on a shelf
at home and forgotten, eh?
That's genius!

Thanks for the book, time to read through the Equestrian Catalogue of Astronomical Phenomena You're welcome. Come back any time.

..sigh..

Your reading skills are incredible!
The perks of being a Time Lord.

Yes Sunshine?
I know that look.
Go ask him out.

I don't know, the last stallion didn't work out so well. Plenty of fish in the sea and all that.

There may be plenty of fish in the sea, but you've only got so much bait and the boat's rented. Go get him!

I don't want to get burned again like with X-Ray, and what if he says no?

Then you've forced my hoof, time for my never-fail date snagging technique.

First he freaks
out when we're separate,
now he's keeping me away.
I'll never understand that guy.

Hey there,
I've got a free lunch
voucher for Good Morning Cafe' that expires after tomorrow.
Would you like it?
Free food?
Sure I'd like it!

It's a for a couples lunch special, you'll have to bring a date. I'm sure you can find some mare to bring.
Well I'll ask some of the ladies around town then. Thanks!

Why ask around town when there's one right over there?
Who would- oh I see.

You're not very subtle, are you?
Brute force works best in subtle packaging.

Thanks for asking me out.
How could I pass up a charmer like you?

Say, isn't that the mare who gave me the free meal voucher?
Of course it is. This is her cafe.

So you mentioned you were a... Jack of all trades. What's that like?

Oh, you know, lots of travel, trying new things, bit of thrill seeking here and there. I get in to things you wouldn't believe.

Ohh, what kind of things?
The kind of things that can make your head hurt just knowing about them.

Ah, like my jokes!
Try me.

...And then they said to cut the purple wire, but my vision was sleepy so I cut the red and blue wires together!
HAHAHAAHAHAH!

So I fell asleep on my notes,
and all the ink imprinted on my cheek.
During the test, ponies were trying to cheat off my face!

...and after I swallowed the key, then left me to go get some prune juice. One cough later, I was out the front door!

So my lawyer said that crimes against language aren't covered in the penal code.

Haha- good thing- hah-
Good thing it's impossible for me to die laughing-Phhthahahaha!
Huh...
I don't get that one...
Don't worry- Inside joke. PHHHT!

Well this was lots of fun, let's do it again sometime.
I'd really like that. Thanks, umm? I never asked your name.

Sooo Doctor, how was your little reading session with Twilight?
So doc, I'm hoping this universe's Twilight is as intellectual as ever? How was your time with her?
It was fun while it lasted, but she's very particular about her schedule.

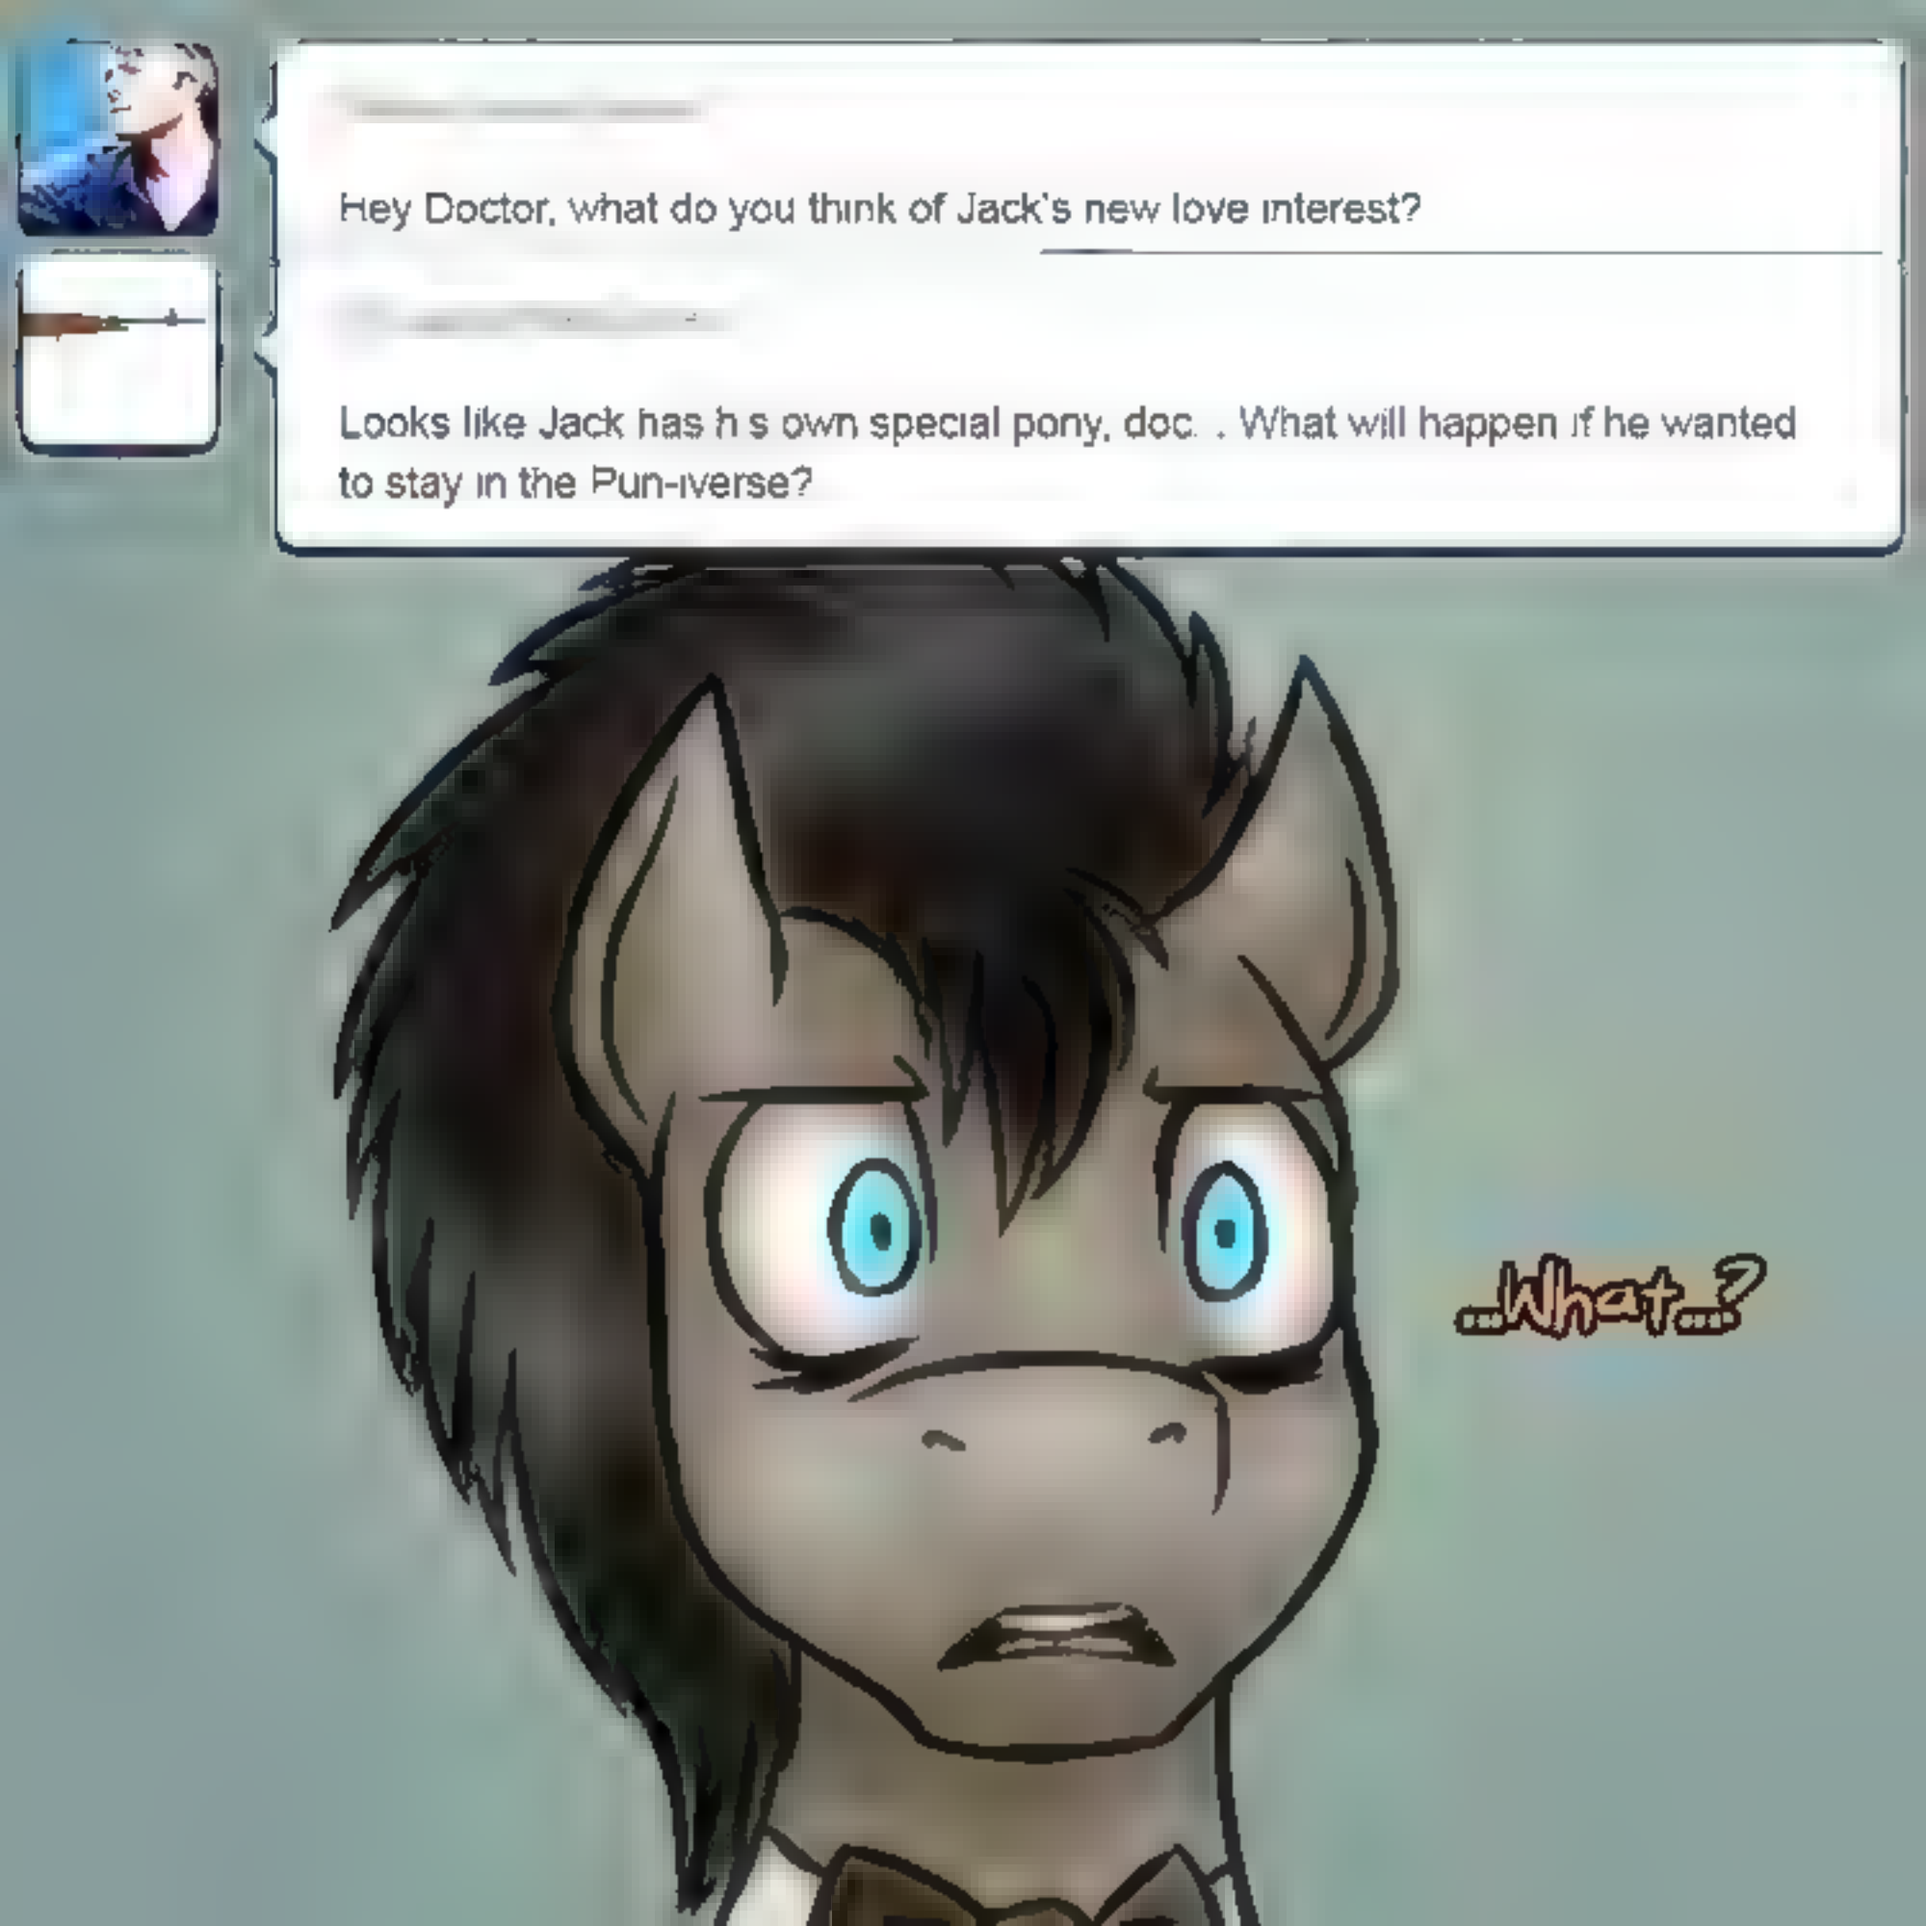
So Doctor did Twilight only make you read a few books or with how impressed she was did she make you continue?
She had me read about 50 books and quizzed me on all of them to see how well I did. I got 100%.

Doctor what do you think of this universe's Twilight?
I really like her mane, it's an adorable look for her.

Hey Doc, any noticeable differences between punniverse Twilight and the other?
She's a bit more selfish and tight-laced. She's fun to be around... IF it's on her schedule.

Doctor, dear, are you sure that you should be p aying around with this universe's Twilight instead of keeping an eye on Jack? Who knows what sort of trouble he could get into?
I'm sure he's fine, he should be at the private library like we agreed.

Oh sorry, their stallion left quite some time ago.



Hey Doctor, what do you think of Jack's new love interest?
Looks like Jack has h s own special pony, doc . What will happen if he wanted to stay in the Pun-iverse?
...What...?

Doctor you don't seem to be too concerned about Jack wandering off this time. I'm impressed Wandering... off...?

What?
I can barely understand you.

Actually
I couldn't hear you guys for a long time...
I wonder why..

I'm an ex con man, coming up with something to fit in was easy.

Star Hunter? I suppose that's another alias to add to your belt. Will you be using that new name often?

While I'm in this horse world, yeah.

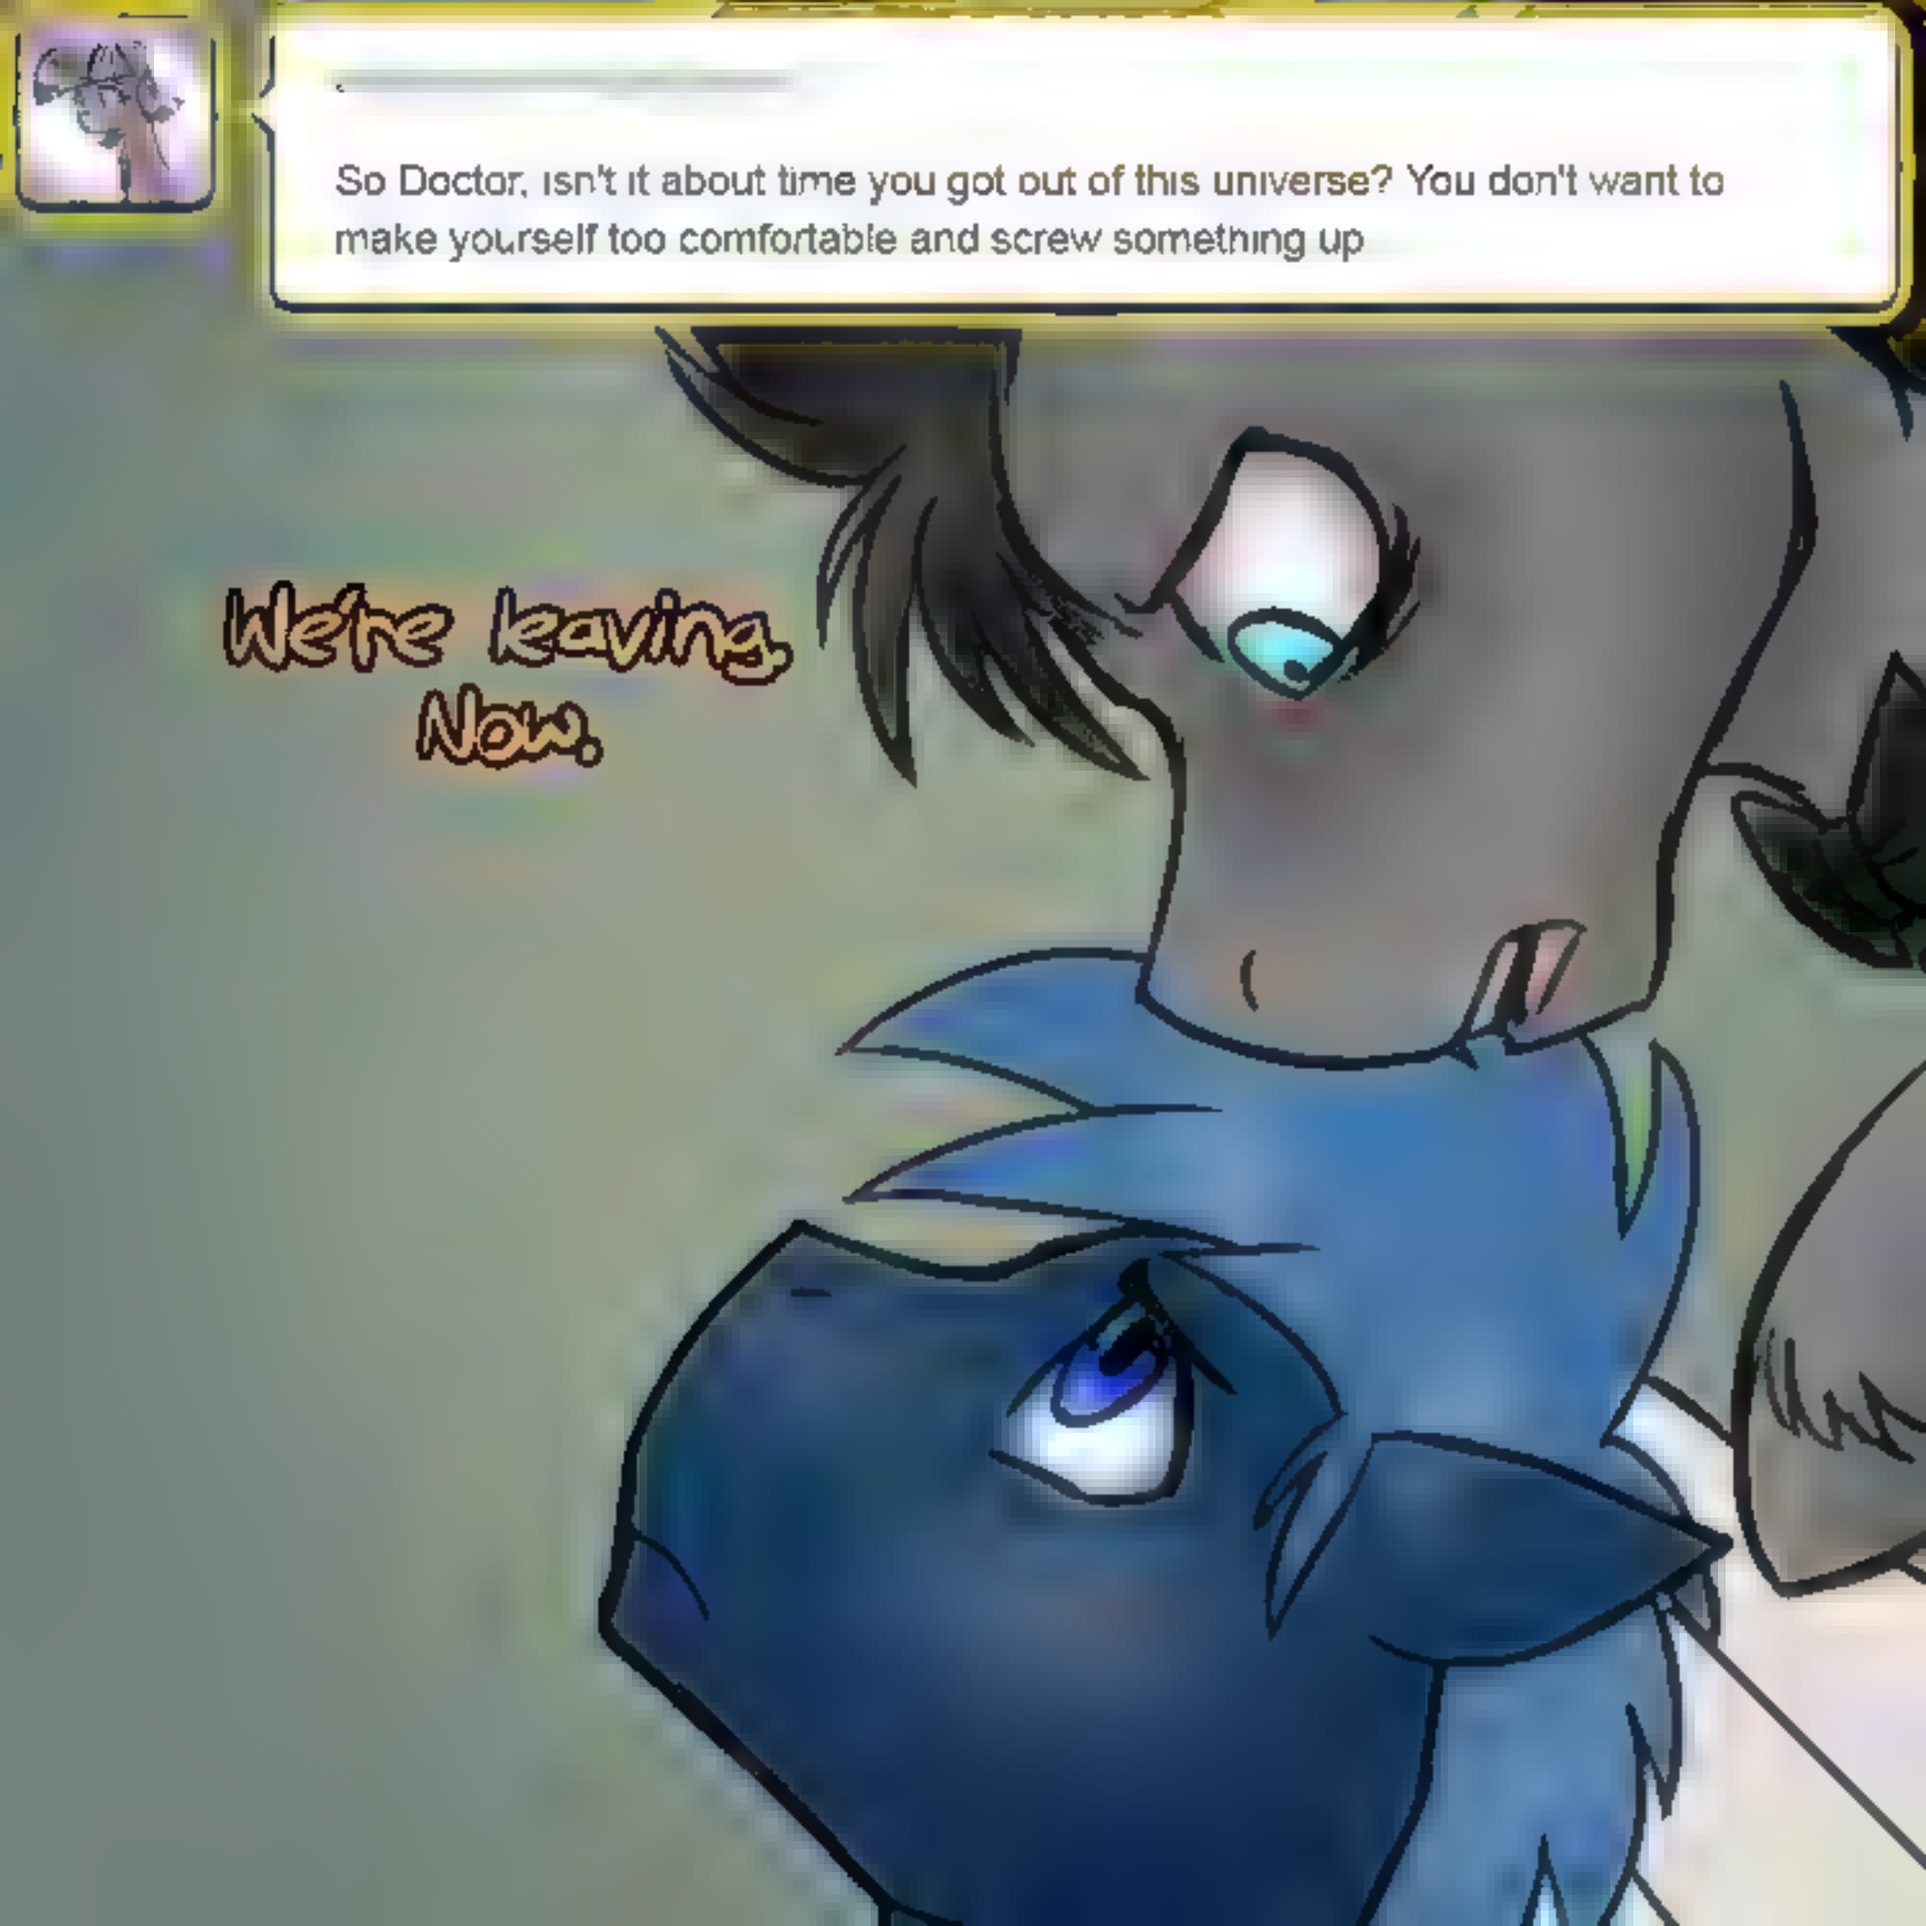
Jack what's in the book other than the constellations?
So Jack anything useful in that book?
Well, it's mostly ful of detailed star charts and legends. I managed to find the one about Orion.

Hey Jack find out about your cutie mark yet?
So Jack, any luck with your talent?
It says 'Orion' was a handsome and powerful hunter from Boeotia. He got drunk and did something stupid, resulting in him being blinded.
However, his eyesight was restored by the sun's blessing. After he was killed, he was dubbed a hero and placed in the stars.

Hey Jack, I remember a story about the Greek mythology Orion, the constellation it was named after How he pretty much died but was revived and g ven life again I think that's pretty interesting how that sounds a lot like your story ;)
Ah, that was a different legend, actually, from Ancient Saddle Arabia. Again, he was associated with the sun, but this time represented rebirth and the afterlife. So, my mark could mean a number of things...

Chuck
Getting fond of Miss Pun Pony eh, Suspenders?
Hey Jack what did you think of Miss Pun?
Oh she's great! Best laugh I'd had in a while. I wouldn't mind another

Jack...
Oh, hey Dot.



So Doctor, isn't it about time you got out of this universe? You don't want to make yourself too comfortable and screw something up We're leaving. Now.

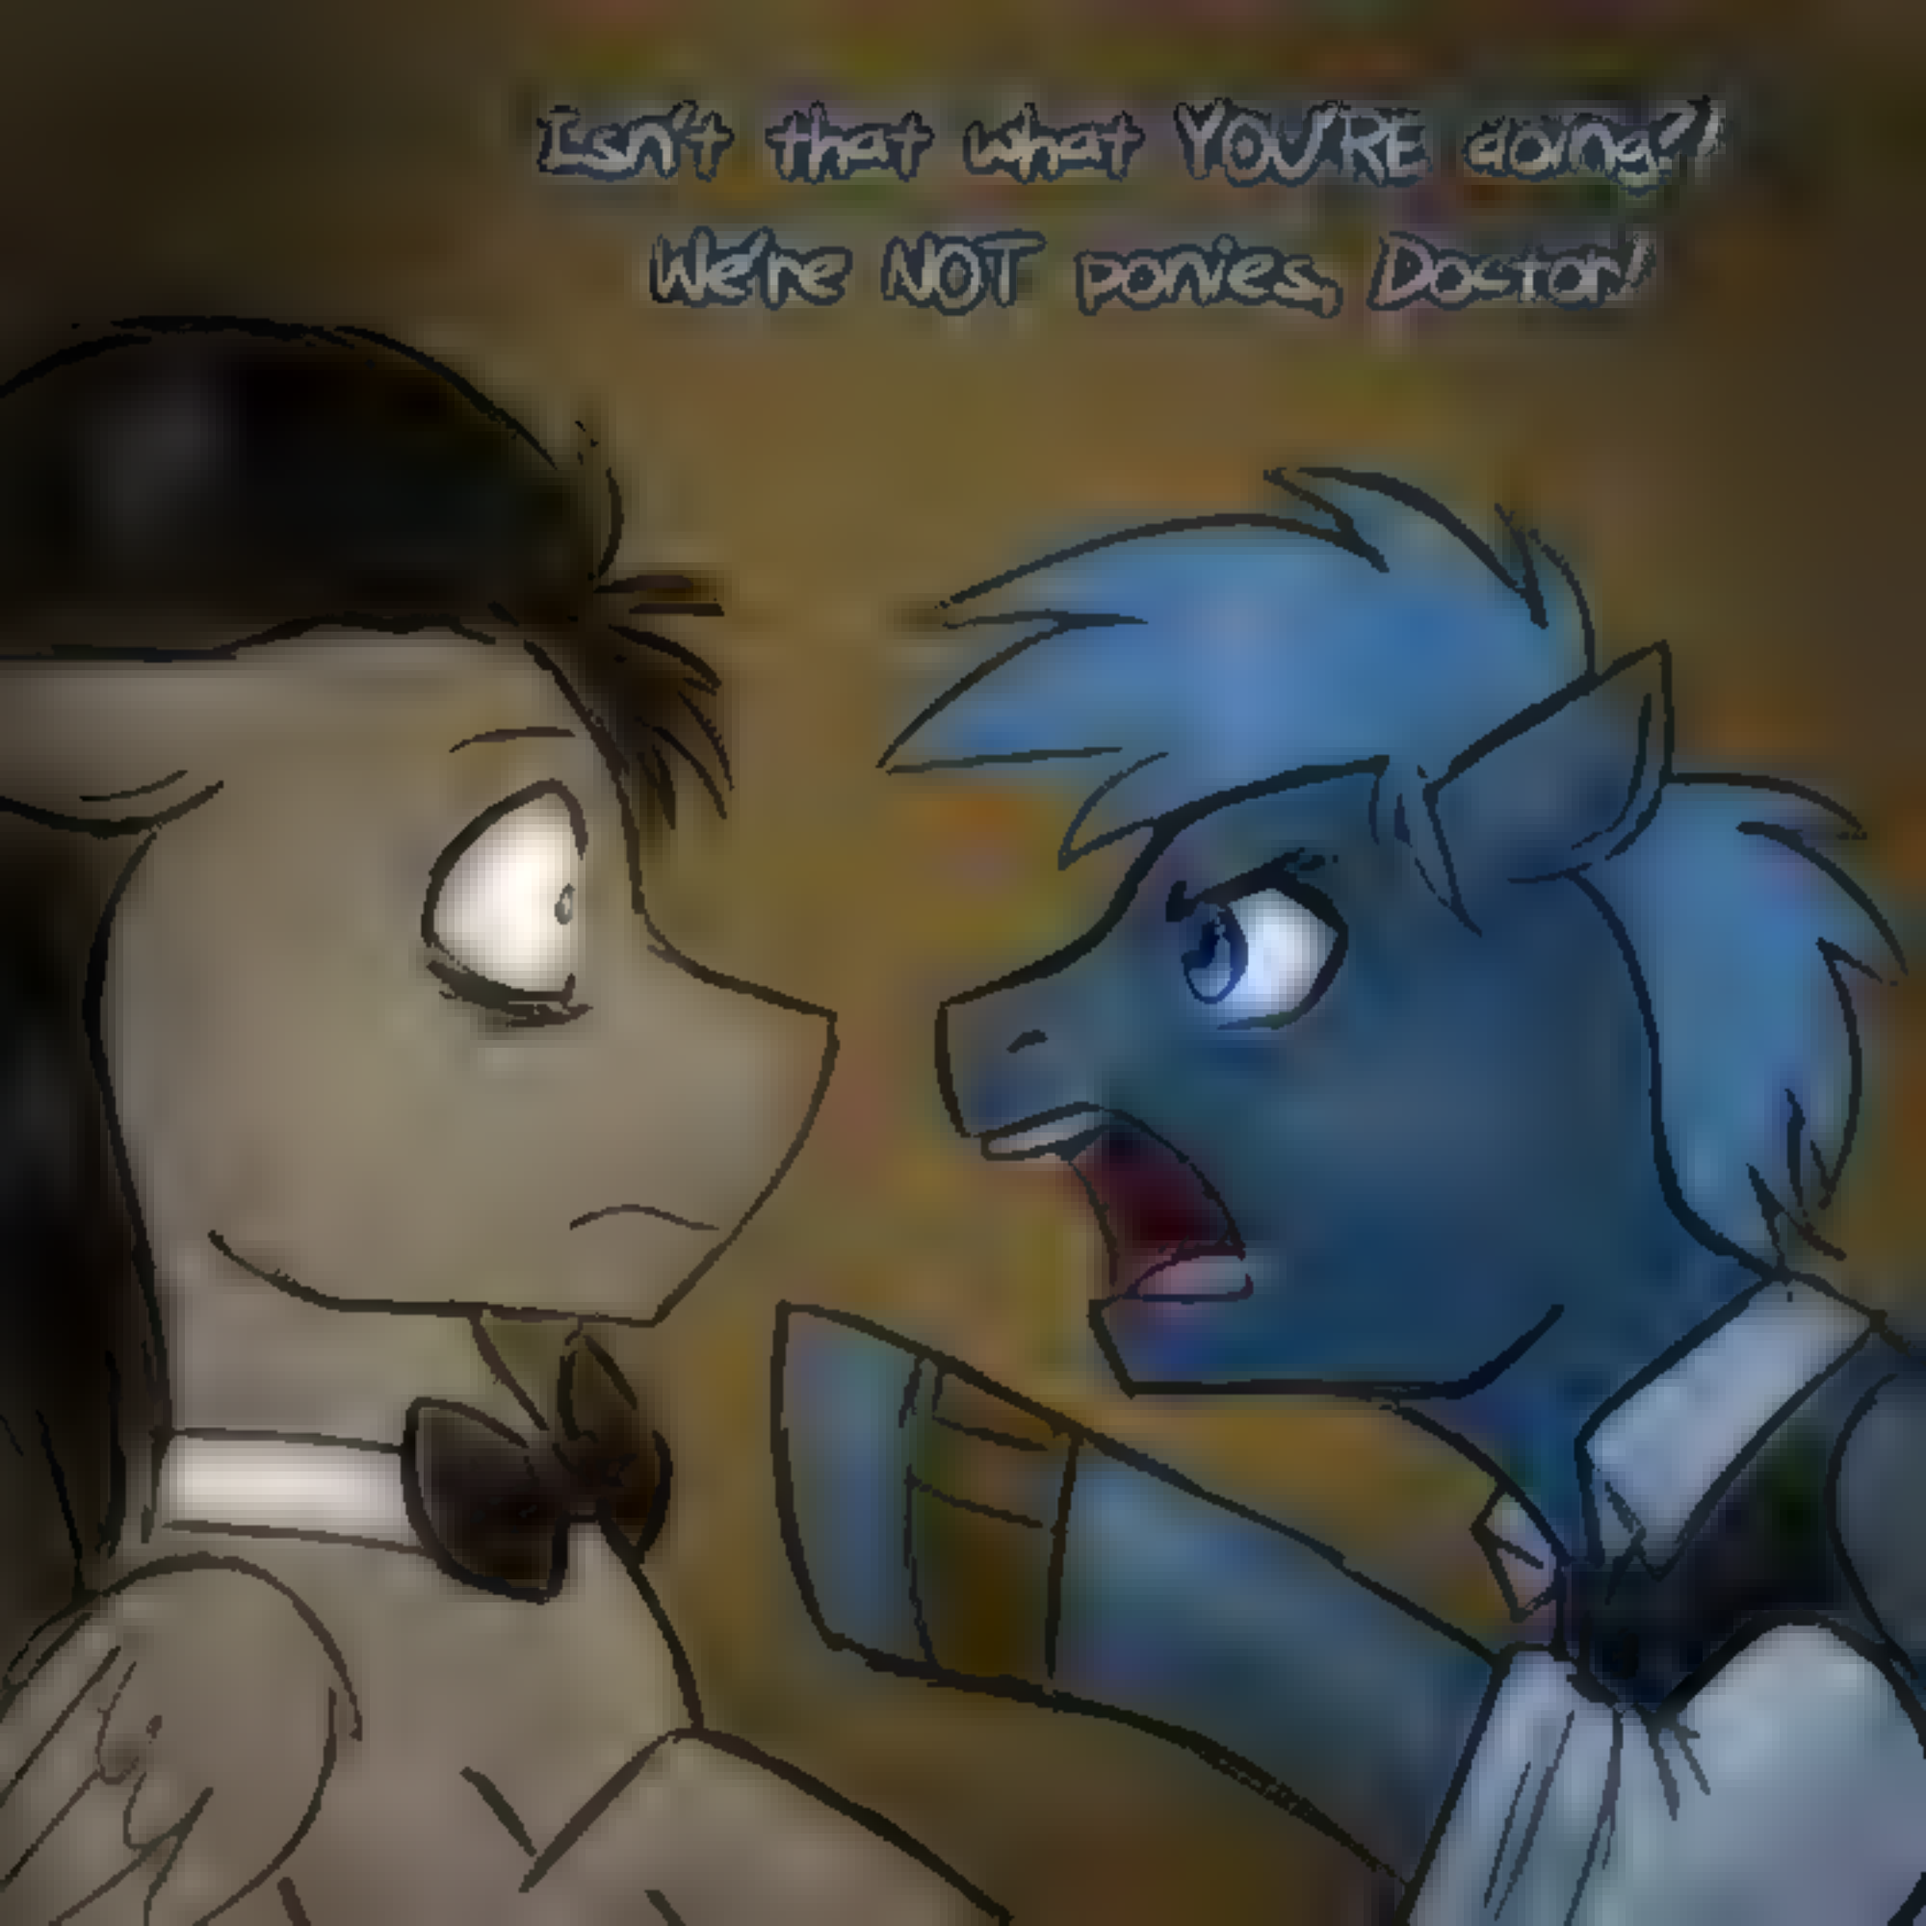
What were you doing, wandering off constantly?!

You wanted to show me around, didn't you?

Yes, but how could I do that when you kept leaving me?

Hey, you're the one who decided to have fun with that Twilight, don't blame me

Doctor, I think you're sending mixed messages to Jack. When you're alone with him you want him to stay with you as close as possible, but when you're with others you unintentionally (I'm assuming) push him away. You need to tell him flat out the times you need him around and the times you don't. If you don't that's going to frustrate him further
I—it's not just that! You shouldn't be getting cozy in a universe that isn't even ours!



Isn't that what YOU'RE doing?!
We're NOT ponies, Doctor!

I don't have a choice!

And you think I do?!

Stop acting like you're the only one suffering here!

Make sure he doesn't leave you, Doctor
Does this mean you... want to leave?

...I want to go back to our home universe, yes...

...But I don't want to go back without you.

time to let it all out, isnt it
Dammit, Doc, I'm worried sick about you. Don't you understand? Just look at you!

You're like a shell of what you were, you're miserable, you avoid conflict, you're a nervous wreck who's become dependent on cheap escapes like alcohol and sex!

But I can't be mad at you for any of that...

Because I've been there...
I know what it's like.

Please, just trust me.
Let me help you, just like you helped me so many times...

Are you going to take that from him Doctor? He doesn't know what you've been thru! He doesn't seem to be suffering While you seem to be going the r alot he's running off to get some pony-plot!
You don't know anything.

Jack you sould run now as you can! Leave the doctor for a little moment please he is gonna hurt you bad!!!
Be careful Jack! The Doctor has hurt ponies before when he's angry like this He might hurt you!
I've taken worse, bring it on, coward...

Whoa Whoa Whoa! Seriously calm down before things get out of hand Don't do anything you guys will regret.
Too late for that.
You said it...

Two madmen in a box arguing whose life is worse How miserably disgusting you two have become

What. What are we DOING?

Doctor please! Der-your last traveling companion was the one who left you!
Don't be the reason to make the one you have now leave Doctor,
this has to stop!

Doc don't you dare! If you lose Jack you'll lose him forever.
Oh.. Oh god...

I'm sorry, I'm sorry,
I'm so so sorry—

Wait—!

Jack, The Doctor has been through a lot. Calm down. Let the poor guy breathe, and maybe you should too

Jack, get back Look at his eyes Whatever's wrong with him it's taking over and it'll take you too if you don't get clear
Jack! Don't go dark, your the only hope to get the real doctor back! We don't need you discorded too
?!!?
What the hell is this?!

Jack, you're looking a bit gray there. What is that?

It's spreading Jack Watch out

It's gone now.
Whatever it was.
I'll have to keep my guard up.

Jack, please don't leave the Doctor I know he might be scary or a total ass, but he needs someone Please! Don't go!
Relax, I won't.. Someone has to keep his ass in line.

So Jack You're a devoted friend You're doing all you can to help the Doctor, even despite all he's done, because you know it's not really his fault and you might be able to save him But hypothetically, is there any kind of line that he'd be able to cross which would make even you just completely give up on him?

If there is I haven't thought of it
But I know it'd have to be a pretty drastic line

Hey Jack you shouldn't let the Doc keep you in the dark like this I know he's your friend but what I think he needs now is someone to get in his face
I was so close before, I thought I reached him. Then suddenly... what the hell happened?

Remember Jack, you have a mission to accompl sh! Don't let your personal feelings get in the way of find ng out what The Doctor's been hiding!
Right?

But I think I've done enough pushing for the day.

Doc jacks just trying to be helpful, unlike you
Since when is running off and yelling at me helpful!?

Doctor, please! While he may not understand what's going on, it's clear that you stil need each other Don't get angry hurting him won't make you feel any better
But how could he even dare try to claim he understands me?! He doesn't know a damn thing!

Damnit Doc! It isn't about Jack understanding everything you've been through or exactly how you feel! It's about the fact that he knows how it is to hurt! HE KNOW WHAT IT'S LIKE TO BE IN PAIN! Let him help you!

Please Doctor! Don't be mad at him! He may not know, but you're not letting him understand! You're not letting anypony understand! You're just hiding in a box, avoiding what's really bothering you. Please, let us into the box and tackle the problem head on. You don't have to face it alone Doctor. remember that.
I-I-I want him to understand- I do, I just-
I'm too scared he wont if I tell him...

He wants to help you and you push him away? Really? How STUPID can you get?

Careful Doc, you don't have many friends as it stands
Doctor your going to end up pushing him away if you do stuff like that Calm down doctor! Please don't do anything to make Jack leave you! You need him!
I-I don't want to lose him, I don't...

GOD DAMMIT DOCTOR!! What the fuck is wrong with you!? You never used to be like this! You used to be a selfless, and brave soul who imparted wisdom upon the masses. Now you wallow in self pity, and drink your problems away like a God damn coward! Don't give me your shit about not knowing what you've been through! YOU'RE NOT THE REAL DOCTOR! The real Doctor would never treat his fiends as you do! Now I suggest you get the fuck over it, and stop acting like a child! I hope Jack fucking punches you
